Notaries of the European Union have put online the European directory of notaries. It is It is now possible to find the contact details of a notary anywhere in the European Union who speaks your language. This service, which is partially funded by the European institutions, provides notaries' contact details and states the languages they used. To find the relevant notary you search, you have to choose one of the EU's 23 official languages and a country where you wish to find a notary (with the option of selecting a town).
